ST. ANTHONY, Doctor

Patron of the High School under this particular title, St. Anthony is pictured surrounded by the greatest sources of learning—The Crucifix and the Books of the Bible. This choice of title and picture for the High School was influenced by the fact that in 1946, as St. Anthony Parish opened its first High School Class, Pope Pius XII added "Doctor" to the long list of titles already attached to the name of the son of St. Francis. In 1951 as the first volume of School memories was about to appear a name was sought which would embody at least some portion of the Paduan Saint's name and indicate the theme of the book. Hence, the TONE seemed to answer the quest. For the fifth year we are proud to place this stamp of our Parish Patron on our title page through the courtesy of "St. Anthony Messenger."

Dear Graduates,

It is rather unusual that a group so high spirited and, dare I say, gay, should choose as class patron Our Lady, under the title "Sorrowful Mother." Yet, it is indicative of a trait that we are happy to find in young women of today. To realize that we live in a world of complexities and contradictions, and that life here on earth is a "vale of tears" where we find that pain rightly used leads to joy, is significant.

Suffering is the price of love, and it is love that can heal the world; suffering has no power in itself; it is only powerful to save when it is caused by love and when it is the expression of love. Our Lady is the world's truest human testimony of these facts: she could SING . . .

"My soul magnifies the Lord
And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour" even though the shadow of sorrow had been cast upon her at the moment of her "Behold the handmaid of the Lord." From suffering minds and souls have come the greatest masterpieces of art and literature. Francis Thompson summed up this art of suffering in his lines . . .

Ah! must—
Designer Infinite!—
Ah! must Thou char the wood ere Thou canst limn with it?

. . . and you will recall other singers whose songs were sweetest when springing from suffering.

It has been the aim of your Alma Mater to prepare you for your distinctive role in the Church, the home and civil society; hence, we trust that, realizing it is woman's role to find joy in suffering, you have imbibed, at least, "the elementary principles, the fruitful germ of the valiant woman" depicted in the Book of Proverbs.

Believing that you will go through life singing your "Ave" to the Queen of Heaven and Mother of Sorrows we pray that she will teach you the art of being the "womanly woman" so needed in every walk of life today. Remember your chosen "Ad Jesum per Mariam!"

Sincerely,

Sister M. Eugene, S.S.N.D.

Brenda Mollere protects the first blooming bulb planted by Civics Club

High School Flag Pole gets attention from the Fire Department: Fireman C. D. Estess replaces worn out rope with new chain.

C. B. Gurney, D. L. Sylvest, Chief J. E. Le Jeune, Capt. R. L. Ricks, C. D. Estess and G. P. Arceneaux answered the call to get "Old Glory" back on the campus after a high wind and an "aging rope" called for a new chain. Thanks to "Engine No. 2" on Ozark Street and the Chief who brought the crew over to Osceola Street.
